MEMPHIS CORNHOLE CHALLENGE

NOVEMBER 10, 2018 - THE COLUMNS AT COMMERCE SQUARE

It began with a dream, and has now evolved into an event that is the highlight of the year! The Memphis Cornhole Challenge was the vision of Jason Motte who wanted to host a fundraiser that is "not your typical fundraiser." After back-to-back successful years, Jason is back for Year Three in the relentless fight against cancer.

This year's event, tabbed for November 10, will be the ninth cornhole event that the Jason Motte Foundation has hosted, following tournaments in St. Louis and Chicago. Located at The Columns at Commerce Square, just blocks away from legendary Beale Street, Jason and his wife, Caitlin, will be adding to the festive nightlife of their hometown of Memphis with a healthy mix of competition and camaraderie. In total, the previous eight events have raised close to $1 million. Proceeds from this event will go towards the Motte Foundation's ongoing support of the West Cancer Center and their initiatives.

A LITTLE BIT CAN GO A LONG WAY

During the fall of 2010, Jason Motte and his wife, Caitlin, found themselves frequent visitors to the West Cancer Center as Caitlin's grandfather, Lynn H. Doyle, was being treated for lung cancer. On one such visit, they noticed a sign that read, "Blankets Needed." Blankets ... seems easy enough ... that is something that this couple could provide. But that small act of generosity would blossom into the formation of the Jason Motte Foundation, an organization committed to providing comfort and care to those affected by this disease. From hospital visits to gala events, expos and the selling of his popular KCancer t-shirts across Major League Baseball, the Foundation has made great strides in the fight against cancer. Jason recently sponsored a trip of a lifetime to Spring Training for a group of cancer patients in Denver. There, kids could forget about their treatments, forget about their medication, and just be kids! At the West Cancer Center, the Motte Foundation has funded a community outreach lung cancer screening program that provides CAT scans to those in need. The Foundation has now grown by leaps and bounds with awareness nationwide and around the globe, but the battle continues. And so will the Motte's, until the day when we can proudly say that we live in a cancer-free world.
